RULES

Fees are check in and stamping of artist supplied canvases/substrates may begin as early as 1 PM on June 6th (Thursday) at the Arts of the Pamlico located at 150 West Main Street, Washington, NC 27889, (252) 946-2504. At the theatre you will pick up your goody bag and head out. Throughout the plein air event we will be roving the boundary area with our Golf Cart Volunteer to check in on the painters throughout the painting period.

Artists may submit up to THREE pieces for judging. All works must be done in plein air (outside), during the event times (nocturnal compositions accepted), within the painting boundaries as confirmed by the map (designated space to be provided at registration), and without assistance of photographs. All canvases/substrates must be officially stamped at registration.

Eligible submissions must be turned in by 3 PM on June 8th (Saturday) at the Arts of the Pamlico. Artists must provide artist name, name of artwork and prices on the back of the canvas at the time of submission. All media are accepted, except for photography. Artists must be present for the wet sale to sell their works of art and are encouraged to participate in the reception and awards.

CANVAS RESTRICTIONS

Canvases/substrates may be no larger than 24" inches in any direction. Each artist may submit up to THREE completed works for the judging.

Plein Air on the Pamlico

June 7 & 8, 2019

Casual and competing artists of all levels and ages are welcome to paint on the shores of the Pamlico River and in the Historic District of Washington during this first in a series of Plein Air on the Pamlico events.

BOUNDARY

The painting boundary encompasses many picturesque scenes including, but not limited to the beautiful riverside, Historical homes, Grand Mansions, antique car show, NC Estuarium, gorgeous river views, majestic oaks, historical churches, colorful Summer Fest, the Havens Mill, a downtown Marina, the Historic Turnage Theatre, train station, antique caboose, plus much more!

(BOUNDARY IS THE PINK AREA)

AWARDS

1st Place: $300, 2nd Place: $200, 3rd Place: $100 and a special prize chosen by the Washington – Beaufort County Chamber of Commerce (Chamber): Summer Fest Award (up to $750 if a work of their liking is chosen) for the best work that captures Summer Festival splendor. The selected artwork and rights of use for the work will be retained by the Chamber. Awards will be given at 6 PM during the reception on June 8th. Reception begins at 5 PM at the Historic Turnage Theatre.

SALES

Completed works may be listed for sale, at the artists' request, in the wet-paint sale and during the gallery exhibit period. Artists must price their own pieces. The wet-paint sale will begin at 5 PM immediately after the judging, on Saturday afternoon, June 8, 2019. Sales generated during the wet-paint sale will be the sole responsibility of the artists, for which 100% commission will be retained by the artist. Works will be displayed in the Lane Gallery in the Arts of the Pamlico's (the area arts council) Historic Turnage Theatre from June 8 through July 6th with pick up on July 7th (unless sold). The Arts of the Pamlico will retain a 30% commission. Half of the commission will be used to support future plein air paint outs hosted by the Washington Harbor District Art Stops.

JUDGING & CRITIQUE

Judging will be completed by reception time, 5 PM on June 8. Dan Beck is the juror for the 2019 Plein Air on the Pamlico. He will offer a critique during the reception. Dan is a Contemporary Impressionist and a Gold Medal recipient of the 2017 Oil Painters of America Eastern Regional Exhibition. In 2016, he received three national awards: Oil Painters of America National Exhibition, American Impressionist Society National Exhibition and Oil Painters of America Eastern Regional Exhibition.
