

Broadway Teens Camp: Anastasia

Dates: June 7-11, June 14-18, June 21-25

Time: 9:00-12:30

Performance: June 26 at 2:30 and 6:30, June 27 at 2:30

Price: $100

25 total students

Description: Broadway Teens Camp brings young people on the magical journey of producing a full-length musical in just three short weeks! Campers will be walked through the professional processes of auditions, rehearsals, and of course performance! Campers will have a great time singing, dancing, and acting while producing a professional performance.

Instructor: Rachel Isaac is the Theatre Arts Teacher at D.H. Conley High School. In the past, she worked as the Youth Programming Coordinator at the Arts of the Pamlico. She graduated from East Carolina University in 2017 with her Bachelors of the Fine Arts degree in Theatre for Youth and has returned to ECU to obtain her K-12 Theatre Education Licensure. Rachel was the director of Bubblegum Theatre Productions at AOP and has performed in many community theatre and college productions. She takes private lessons with Tony Award Winner, Eugene Brancoveanu and also participates in Masterclasses and Workshops with the Broadway Theatre Alliance in NYC.

Pottery Camp

Dates: July 12-16, July 26-30, August 9-13

Time: 9:00-12:30

Price: $85 family membership/ $95 non-member
10 total students per week

Description: During Pottery Camp, students will learn hand-building fundamentals, firing processes and the creative process for making clay pottery. Each little artist will create pinch pots, coil pots, mugs, and other exciting clay masterpieces!

Instructor: Heather Summers is a graduate of East Carolina University with a BFA in Ceramics and Art Education 2016. She has worked Summer camps throughout NC for years and absolutely loves every second of them. She grew up at the beach and loves the outdoors, fishing and kayaking. Heather is a brand-new Mama and will be introducing her new baby boy, Jakob, to many AOP participants this year. She loves every type of art imaginable, but definitely has an extra passion for pottery/clay. She lives with Jakob and her husband, Logan, in Washington, just a short way from our theater. She has been the art teacher at Chocowinity Middle School for the last 5 years and cannot wait to share her love of teaching and love of the arts here with us!

Theatre Camp

Dates: June 17-21, August 9-13

Time: 1:30-5:00

Price: $85 family membership/ $95 non-member
15 total students per week

Description: Theatre Camp is an amazing experience where students get to write and perform an original play that they create! Students will learn techniques to become a better performer, such as: acting, playwriting, and set building. All these techniques will be brought together to create a fun and entertaining performance at the end of the week.

Instructor: Ethan Wolf is a recent ECU graduate with degrees in Theatre for Youth and Theatrical Movement Studies. He loves to learn new things and is passionate about theatre, martial arts, and stage combat. Ethan is a certified actor combatant with the Society of American Fight directors, and aspires to one day become a certified teacher with the organization. Most recently, he was awarded a grant to produce a performance about poetry in its many different forms. He enjoys walking with his dog in the park, playing piano, and juggling.

Mixed Media Camp

Dates: July 19-23, August 2-6, August 16-20

Time: 9:00-12:30

Price: $85 family membership/$95 non-member

10 total students per week

Description: Mixed media camp will be a great opportunity for students to experience more within the world of visual art. They will be working, hands on, with materials of different mediums to create assorted masterpieces that they will be able to show off to their friends and families.

Instructor: Heather Summers is a graduate of East Carolina University with a BFA in Ceramics and Art Education 2016. She has worked Summer camps throughout NC for years and absolutely loves every second of them. She grew up at the beach and loves the outdoors, fishing and kayaking.

Heather is a brand-new Mama and will be introducing her new baby boy, Jakob, to many AOP participants this year. She loves every type of art imaginable, but definitely has an extra passion for pottery/clay. She lives with Jakob and her husband, Logan, in Washington, just a short way from our theater. She has been the art teacher at Chocowinity Middle School for the last 5 years and cannot wait to share her love of teaching and love of the arts here with us!

Stage Combat Camp

Date: July 19- July 23

Time: 1:30-5:00

Price: $85 family membership/ $95 non-member

15 total students per week

Description: Stage Combat camp will introduce campers to the techniques and practices of stage combat. Students will learn about the history of stage combat and why it is important in theatre, and our everyday lives. The camp will start with learning basic techniques and develop them into a full fight sequence by the end of the week.

Instructor: Ethan Wolf is a recent ECU graduate with degrees in Theatre for Youth and Theatrical Movement Studies. He loves to learn new things and is passionate about theatre, martial arts, and stage combat. Ethan is a certified actor combatant with the Society of American Fight directors, and aspires to one day become a certified teacher with the organization. Most recently, he was awarded a grant to produce a performance about poetry in its many different forms. He enjoys walking with his dog in the park, playing piano, and juggling.

Movie Camp

Dates: July 26-30

Time: 1:30-5:00

Price: $85 family membership/$95 non-member
10 total students per week

Description: “Let’s Make a Movie!” During this camp students will learn key elements in organizing and presenting a completed film. Topics to be covered include development of an idea for a film, storyboarding the script for filming purposes, directing the actors, lighting, costuming, sound, editing the film once shot, and presenting the film to parents on the final day.

Instructor: Jennifer Woolard, MAEd., NBCT., is a native of Beaufort County where she became interested in photography and videography at a young age. She started shooting and editing in 1997 and began documenting everything from life on the Pamlico River to weddings in eastern North Carolina. Her experience performing on stage lead to a position on the board of directors for the Washington Community Theater Association in 1998. Ms. Woolard graduated from East Carolina University with a Master’s degree in 2005. She started teaching at Northside High School in the year 2000, and began directing theater performances including an annual competition titled Battle for the Arts. At this time, Ms. Woolard founded a film department for students, now called Screen Voyage Motion Pictures. This program uses state of the art technology and creative solutions to achieve excellence in film. Jennifer is experienced with aerial photography and has an interest in local historical photography. She is now a two-time National Board Certified teacher and is currently working on two local documentaries.

Music Camp

Dates: August 2-6

Time: 1:30-5:00

Price: $85 family membership/ $95 non-member
10 total students per week

Description: Music camp is the perfect opportunity to learn about music and have fun doing it! Students will learn about rhythm, melody, and what makes music sound good. Everyone can play a part in making music, and this camp will help you find your place!

Instructor: Ethan Wolf is a recent ECU graduate with degrees in Theatre for Youth and Theatrical Movement Studies. He loves to learn new things and is passionate about theatre, martial arts, and stage combat. Ethan is a certified actor combatant with the Society of American Fight directors, and aspires to one day become a certified teacher with the organization. Most recently, he was awarded a grant to produce a performance about poetry in its many different forms. He enjoys walking with his dog in the park, playing piano, and juggling.

Broadway Kids Camp: Frozen Jr.

Dates: August 2-6, August 9-13, August 16-20

Times: 9:00-12:30

Performance: August 21 at 2:30 and 6:30, August 22 at 2:30

Price: $250 family membership/ $350 non-member
25 total students

Description: Broadway Kids Camp brings young people on the magical journey of producing a full-length musical in just three short weeks! Campers will be walked through the professional processes of auditions, rehearsals, and of course performance! Campers will have a great time singing, dancing, and acting while producing a professional performance.

Instructor: Rachel Isaac is the Theatre Arts Teacher at D.H. Conley High School. In the past, she worked as the Youth Programming Coordinator at the Arts of the Pamlico. She graduated from East Carolina University in 2017 with her Bachelors of the Fine Arts degree in Theatre for Youth and has returned to ECU to obtain her K-12 Theatre Education Licensure. Rachel was the director of Bubblegum Theatre Productions at AOP and has performed in many community theatre and college productions. She takes private lessons with Tony Award Winner, Eugene Brancoveanu and also participates in Masterclasses and Workshops with the Broadway Theatre Alliance in NYC.

Dance Camp

Date: August 16-20

Time: 1:30-5:00

Price: $85 family membership/ $95 non-member
10 total students per week

Description: Dance camp will focus on age-based development. In each group, students will learn about dance history and styles/genres of dance. Student will also learn an upbeat piece of choreography and have the opportunity to contribute their own ideas to design the dance. Afterwards, each of the groups will come together and perform for one another in a mini performance. The students will then make props and incorporate them into the choreography and learn about staging, blocking, and tempo. At the end of the day, there will be a mini performance for parents and friends.

Instructor: Heather Summers is a graduate of East Carolina University with a BFA in Ceramics and Art Education 2016. She has worked Summer camps throughout NC for years and absolutely loves every second of them. She grew up at the beach and loves the outdoors, fishing and kayaking.

Heather is a brand-new Mama and will be introducing her new baby boy, Jakob, to many AOP participants this year. She loves every type of art imaginable, but definitely has an extra passion for pottery/clay. She lives with Jakob and her husband, Logan, in Washington, just a short way from our theater. She has been the art teacher at Chocowinity Middle School for the last 5 years and cannot wait to share her love of teaching and love of the arts here with us!